(b) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) No, Sir.

(b) The Department of Non-Formal and Alternative Schooling in National Council of Educational Research and Training and NFE Division of this Department are responsible for supervision and coordination of the NFE programme at the national level.

DPEP Bureau

1125. SHRI NAGENDRA NATH OJHA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that his Ministry has created a separate DPEP Bureau; and

(b) if so, the reason for creating another infrastructre when apex bodies like NCERT and NIEPA already exist under the same ministry and which are recognised as Centres of excellence internationally?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. A separate DPEP Bureau was created in the Ministry of Human Resource Development (Department of Education) to primarily deal with the Centrally Sponsored and externally aided scheme of District Primary Education Programme (DPEP) in 1994. The DPEP Bureau serves to appraise, finance and supervise the State and District plans according to the prescribed procedures and DPEP Guidelines, to assist the General Council and the Project Board of the DPEP Mission which has been set up in the Ministry for the implementation of the programme in a mission mode, to release funds to the State Implementation Societies and seek reimbursements from the external funding agencies, to ensure compliance of the financial agreements reached with the various multilateral/bilateral funding agencies to look after the supervision, monitoring and evaluation aspects of the project, overall coordination with the State Governments, State Implementation Societies and to arrange technical/professional support for the programme.

NCERT and NIEPA are autonomous bodies, which serve as national apex institutions and their services are utilised for academic and technical support for the programme implementation as and when required. DPEP Bureau is part of the Central Government's structure.
